Delta Iota History

Founded May 26th, 1960, at Florida A&M University by brothers James H. Latimer and Leonard C. Bowie, the Delta Iota Chapter is the 105th chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi National Honorary Band Fraternity, Inc. The chapter was the third chapter installed at a historically Black college or university behind the Gamma Omega chapter at Texas Southern University and the Delta Alpha chapter at Langston University. Additionally, the Delta Iota Chapter is recognized as the first HBCU chapter in the Southeast District.

Since our re-charter on November 12, 2020, the Delta Iota Chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi has remained committed to its mission of serving the band program and fostering a culture of leadership, musicianship, and service. Our members strive to uphold the values of Kappa Kappa Psi by demonstrating dedication, integrity, and excellence in all aspects of our work.

We recognize the importance of building strong relationships within our band community and actively engage in meaningful service initiatives. As we celebrate the 105th-year anniversary of Kappa Kappa Psi, this pamphlet serves as a tribute to the fraternity's enduring legacy, which continues to inspire our commitment to service and brotherhood.

PURPOSE OF GUIDE

As the 105th chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi, Delta Iota is celebrating the fraternities 105th year since founded by launching the “105waystobeabrother” guide. Aimed at procuring 105 unique ways to strengthen brotherhood and support band programs across the nation, this project will be shared with chapters nationwide, offering fresh and creative ideas for FOSTERing brotherhood and engagement on campuses. Our objectives are to enhance chapter involvement, expand our reach by building relationships with chapters beyond the Southeast District, and FOSTER collaboration and service among members, ultimately strengthening the fraternal bonds across Kappa Kappa Psi chapters.
